

Village Election.

The first election for the village of Cooperstown was held last Tuesday, Sept. 6th, 1892, in the office of T. E. Warner. Seventy-four ballots were cast, and there was no opposition to the regular nominated ticket with the exception of marshal, that office being warmly contested, and resulted in bringing out a good vote. The ticket elected is a good one and we are of the opinion that the town will be cleaned up and conducted in proper shape. A few complimentary votes were cast for other parties. The following is the vote:
