

---

The population of Griggs county, according to the report issued from the census bureau at Washington, is 2,799. This has been increased by the arrival of several babies since the census was taken.

---