

---

Joel Jameson's oldest daughter met with a painful accident Wednesday. While the team was hitched to a post the little girl got into the buggy, took up the whip and hit the horses with it. This caused the team to whirl around the post and threw the child under the buggy, cutting two ugly gashes in her head. Luckily no bones were broken.

---