

T, C. Knapp and William Sandy got into a dispute last Saturday over some hay business which resulted in Mr. Knapp getting punched in the face and Mr Sandy getting one finger bit nearly off and a handful of beard torn from his face. Mr. Knapp came to town and had a warrant issued for the arrest of Wm. Sandy for assault and battery. The trial came off before Justice Warner and a jury Monday afternoon. The jury, after being out two hours and a half returned a verdict of not guilty. The jury was composed of the following citizens: Nels P. Nelson, P. R. Trubshaw, E. Marquardt, Claus Jackson, J. O. Oie and C. G. Lande.