

---

I. E. Mills, our genial livery man across the way, must be a pretty good horse trader. We are told that the other day he bought a team and had not had them over five minutes before he sold them. Pretty good Ike.

---