

---

Poundmaster I. E. Mills begs leave to inform the public generally that on or after the hour of noon next Monday, all horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep, pigs, sheep, and other animals found running at large within the city limits will be by him arrested and lodged in the pound and held therein until the fees are paid. A word to the wise is sufficient. Keep up your stock.

---