

Starr met with a heavy misfor Monday evening. His barn, ing 2300 bushels of wheat and d of horses were burned. No e. Mr. Starr was away from reshing and there was no one ouse but his wife and another a sick man. No one knows used the fire. This is a hard Bob. If he had gotten in the of this crop he would have npletely out of debt and in fine r next year. As it is he is laid ely. A subscription list was n town in his behalf and our men liberally responded. Sev is farmer neighbors are going e him 100 bushels of grain each. s a hard working farmer, a and steady fellow, and the r hopes he will come out all en under this heavy ill-luck.
