

We are sorry to relate that Mr. Walt. Upton of this place while coupling cars at Sanborn, recently was the victim of what might have proved a fatal accident. The buffers passing each other allowing the cars to come too near together, the result was a severe crushing. We expect to see Mr. Upton on the streets once more in a short time.

---