

✓ Erick J. Vesteren died Wednesday from the injuries received by his team running away Tuesday, and the wagon, loaded with hay, passing over his body. His back and left arm were broken. The accident occurred by the pole in front of the wagon breaking and throwing the deceased onto the wagon pole, and causing the team to run away with the above fatal results.

---