Again I am pleased to report the same occurence at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Curtis, a bright little girl made her appearance, Saturday night April 14th, just to the delight of Mrs. Curtis, because now she will have help to do her house work, while Thomas has one for out door work. Both families will please except congratulations from all directions, Dad included.