

✓ Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Stone are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby girl at their home. The little lady arrived Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 8th. The genial Fred now wears a smile that far eclipses the smile of a coon in a melon patch. Dr. Platou was in attendance. Mother and baby doing well, and Fred sings:

Don't make a noise or else you'll wake the baby,

Don't make a noise or you will wake the child,

Don't make a noise or you'll disturb the
the infant,

I feel so awfully, awfully jolly, I'm sure I shall go wild.
