

---

T. E. Warner now has an opportunity to sing his nursery rhymes in reality. The paregoric bottle and the midnight promenades will no longer be used with biting sarcasm in his woman suffrage debates, oh no, he is in it now in real earnest because unto the house of Warner a boy was born last Monday. The Courier extends its congratulations. The republican ranks of Griggs county has one more recruit.

---