

They Are One.

Married—at the home of Mr. Andrew Urquhart, on Wednesday, December 11th 1895, Mr. Herbert Church and Miss Belle Urquhart, Rev O. D. Purinton, officiating.

It is with pleasure that the Courier is called upon to chronicle this happy event this week. Mr. Church is one of Griggs county's popular young farmers. He is a young man of sterling worth in any community and is what is termed in this western country a "hustler from away back." He has had his ups and downs during the hard times and has kept plodding away until now he has a fine farm with good buildings thereon and is on the high road to prosperity. He is popular with all his acquaintances. The bride is a sister of Mr. Andrew Urquhart, and is one of the teachers of Griggs county. She is also a popular favorite with all who know her, and is a fitting helpmate for her husband. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. Andrew Urquhart, only a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties being present. The Courier joins with a large circle of friends in wishing Mr. Church and his charming bride much happiness and prosperity all through life.
