

Some two or three weeks ago we announced that there was another wedding on the tapis, and that we are good at guessing the following invitation received by the editor will prove:

Mr. and Mrs. John Arneson will give a reception at their home on the Sheyenne river, in honor of the marriage of their daughter to
Martha

Byron Hazard,

Tuesday, Oct. 3d, 1893, at 5 p. m.

to which you are cordially invited.
