
Married.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Arneson, on January 1st 1894, by Rev. Oscar D. Purinton, Mr. John H. McDermott and Miss Anna Arneson, all of Cooperstown.

Well, well, well, this is a genuine surprise and no mistake. However, the COURIER joins with a host of other friends in wishing Mr. McDermott and his estimable bride a long and happy life. The affair was kept very quiet—characteristic of the bridegroom—and no one dreamed of Mac. getting married. Mr. McDermott is known as one of the solid business men of Griggs county and a gentleman whose business and moral standing in the community is a No. 1. His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Arneson, and is a lady much respected by her friends—of whom she has a large number. The happy couple left on Tuesday morning's train for the east followed by the best wishes of their numerous friends in this community.
