

Wedding Bells. ✓

Another of Cooperstown's bachelors has joined the great army of married men. This time it is our honored townsman, Peter E. Nelson, who, at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, Sept. 20, 1894, led to Hymen's altar Miss Oline Maria Vinjum. The marriage ceremony took place at the Baptist church, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. O. K. Quamme, in the presence of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony the company sat down to a fine wedding feast prepared for the occasion. In the evening a party was given to the young people by the bridal couple and the hours of night sped joyously by to the all inspiring strains of music and the dreamy dance. The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome presents. They will go right to housekeeping in one of the cosiest homes in town which the bridegroom had already furnished and prepared for his bride. The bride is the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Iverson and is a young lady much liked and respected by all. The bridegroom is one of Cooperstown's pioneer business men and is the present county judge of Griggs county, which position he has ably filled for the past eight years. The Courier, together with a large circle of friends, wishes Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Nelson a long life of happiness and prosperity.