

ELOPED!

As we go to press we learn that Nellie Brown and Frank Retzlaff had gone away together and it is presumed they are now married. Miss Brown was out at Mr. Archer's and they skipped from there. It is to be regretted that such a step was taken by the young folks but Cupid has evidently done his work and they were determined to get married at all costs despite the opposition encountered at home. It is no use crying over spilt milk, and the old folks had better forgive them and get them back home.
