

---

Al. Bliss ran a nail into his knee while splitting kindling last week, and he went to Sanborn to rest up and to receive medical treatment. We are told that he is partial to female doctors. Lady physicians are certainly better in Al.'s case where he suffers from heart trouble, a malady that attacks him every time he comes to Cooperstown.

---