

Isaac Brennan is another record breaker. Tuesday afternoon he drove Mrs. Trubshaw, Mrs. Lockton and Miss Nan Cain over to John Houghton's to call on John's wife, and from there to Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Houghton's. On the return trip Ike thought it would not do to get home without an adventure of some kind, so he headed the team for a ditch four feet deep and about four feet wide and dropped the buggy and load into that. For a short time night was made hideous by the yells of the ladies, and had a "tenderfoot" been journeying along the road at that time in the night, he naturally would have thought that he was surrounded by hostile Indians. The evener of the buggy was broken and with the exception of a good scare the ladies got out of it all right with an over supply of mud. Miss Cain can't be beat as a long jumper, so Ike says.
