

---

Jack N. Brown had the misfortune to break his arm between the elbow and wrist, Saturday. He was driving a binder and the seat broke, throwing Mr. Brown to the ground, and in falling he put out his hand to ease the fall breaking his arm as before mentioned. Dr. Kerr attended to the sufferer and he is doing as well as could be expected,

---