

---

Christ Jackson came pretty near meeting with a serious accident Sunday. He went into the barn to hitch up a horse and as he passed by a large fifteen hundred pound horse the animal acknowledged his presence by giving him kick in the side that landed him up against another team some few feet away. Luckily Mr. Jackson's watch received the full force of the blow which accounts for Christ getting off without a scratch.

---