

This is a great week for dislocated shoulders. August Olson, living eight miles northeast of Courtenay is the second victim this week. He was driving along in his wagon when the spring seat broke and threw Mr. Olson out of the wagon dislocating his left shoulder. Dr. Bergstrom fixed him up in good shape and in a few days he will be all right.

---