

---

Rev. E. S. Shaw informs us that he receives very encouraging reports from the east in regard to his little son, who is being treated for curviture of spine. He says the little fellow is almost straightened up and he will be able to leave the hospital by the middle of July. The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Shaw will be pleased to hear this good news concerning their little son.