

---

Adolf Thompson and another boy were out duck hunting last Sunday. They were shooting across a small lake Adolf on one side and the other fellow on the other side. The other fellow fired at some ducks and the shot struck Adolf, one lodging under his left eye and two or three shot in different parts of his anatomy. No serious damage, but a close call. Moral: Don't shoot duck on Sunday.

---