

---

✓ The Courier learns with regret of the death of Mrs. Thomas Gimblett Tuesday night of convulsions. Mrs. Gimblett was a christian woman and much respected and esteemed by those who were acquainted with her. The news of her sudden death was a great surprise as it was not generally known that she was sick. The funeral will take place today.

---