

---

Jorgenson, the man operated on by Doctors Platou and Kerr, some two weeks ago, died Monday morning early. The deceased did not die from the operation, for upon investigation by the doctors it was found that they could not do anything for him. He is a brother-in-law of Mr. Lundeby, of Bue, and his remains were taken up there for interment.

---