

---

Mr. Selander, who was formerly section foreman at Odell, died in a New York hospital last week. He had been sick for over a year, and had been to the old country for a change of climate, but the change did him no good and he returned to this country and died in New York. He was a member of Griggs Lodge No. 13, A. O. U. W.

---