

---

Bernard Sherwood, an old Barnes county boy, was found drowned at West Superior a short time ago. It is thought that he committed suicide. Bernard was one of the pioneer residents of Sanborn and used to run a saloon on Front street in company with his brother in the early days. He was a large-hearted fellow, and very popular with his fellow men.

---