

---

Petrus Erickson was in town Tuesday wearing a 7 by 11 smile, all on account of a fine boy that was born to him Monday at noon. Mr. Erickson had five girls before and the great wish of his life—which has at last been realized—was for a boy. The Courier congratulates the happy parents.

---