

---

Sheriff Jackson is the parent of twin babies—both girls—and they arrived at his home Sunday morning. The genial sheriff evidently has adopted a new ratio of his own. Dr. Platou was in attendance. The Courier congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, and expresses the wish that the girls may grow up to be a comfort to them in their old age.

---