

Wedding Bells.

Married—at the home of Hon. C. H. Johnson, our popular county judge, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 20th, 1898. by Rev. Oscar D. Purinton, Miss Mary E. Johnson to Mr. Glen W. Dyson. The ceremony was witnessed by a small company of friends including the Johnson family. After the ceremony the newly wedded couple were the recipients of hearty congratulations from their friends, after which the company sat down to a very bountiful supper provided by Mrs. Johnson. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. Johnson and has grown up in Griggs county. She is a very quiet, lady like little woman and has a host of friends who wish her all the happiness it is possible for her to obtain. The bridegroom is one of Griggs county's rising farmers, as steady a gentleman as ever stepped into the county, a good farmer, a fine gentleman altogether, owns a nice farm adjoining the townsite, and is popular with all who know him. Glen is lucky in getting such a bride and the bride is lucky in getting so good a husband, and the Courier unites with a host of friends in wishing them both much happiness and success. The happy pair are now domiciled in their own home on the farm.
