MARRIED—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Benson, on Wednesday afternoon at 5 p. m., Mr. Seval Friswold and Miss Christine Ravndal, Rev. E. T. Silness officiating. The knowledge of this wedding was a great surprise to everybody and it had been kept a secret from even the curious scribe, whose business it is to ferret out the news. However, Mr. and Mrs. Friswold have our hearty congratulations. May their wedded life be long and happy. Mr. Friswold is John Syverson's bookkeeper and right bower, always at his post ready for business; and has a host of friends who congratulate him. His bride is a sister to Mrs. John Benson and a very nice young lady. The newly married couple immediately settled down to house keeping in the A. N. Adams house where they can be found at home to their friends.
