

Happily Wedded.

The following from the Helena (Mont.) Independent of June 17, 1897, explains itself:

There was a small but pleasant assembling of friends at the residence of Mrs. R. T. Gaines Thursday evening, to witness the wedding of Miss Rebbie Edgar and John N. Glass. The contracting parties have both been residents of this city for some years, and have a large circle of friends who will be pleased to learn of their marriage. Miss Edgar is the sister of A. D. Edgar, the general agent of the Northern Pacific railway in this city, with whom she has made her home for some time. Mr. Glass has been for a number of years engaged in the real estate and mining business in this city and vicinity, being at the present time one of the owners of the Katie mine at Basin.

Owing to the recent death of Miss Edgar's mother, the wedding was a very quiet one, and no cards were issued. It was witnessed by only the immediate relatives, and a very few intimate friends, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Carleton F. Brown of the Unitarian church. The bride was gowned in a pretty white organdie, trimmed with white lace and ribbon, and carried pink roses. Mrs. Gaines and her mother, Mrs. Jones, had decorated the parlor with many cut flowers, chiefly pink roses, peonies and carnations, tastefully intertwined with smilax. A dainty wedding supper was served in the dining room at a table also decorated with pink and white, and then the bride and groom drove to their home at 911 Eleventh avenue, where they will keep house. □

The Courier joins with a host of Cooperstown friends in extending hearty congratulations to their former townsman.
