Ernest Johnson and Miss Natalia Ruud were united in marriage last Saturday evening, by Rev. E. T. Silness, at the residence of Mr. Knapp, a large company of friends and relatives being present at the ceremony. Mr. Johnson and his bride have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for future happiness and prosperity. Mr. Johnson is at present engaged in the livery business at this place and is an upright, steady young man. The Courier extends congratulations.
