One of the present social events of the week occurred on Monday evening at the Palace Hotel in Cooperstown, when Miss Anna Gorthy and Mr. Wm. C. Knapp were united in marriage. At a little past five o'clock a select company gathered in the parlor of the hotel. At five forty-five the contracting parties entered from rooms accompanied by Miss Maggie Howdon as bridesmaid and Mr. Peter Gorthy as best man, and advanced to the archway between the parlors when Rev. Oscar D. Purinton stepped forward and pronounced the ceremony which formally sealed the bonds in which cupid long ago had bound them. After a short time spent in congratulations and best wishes, the party repaired to the dining room and partook of one of Landlord Stone's delicious suppers. The newly wedded pair were passengers on the down train Tuesday morning on their way to spend the honeymoon at Fargo and other places; after which they will be at home to their many friends on their farm in Helena township.
