

Married Thirty Years. ✓

After spending twenty-nine anniversaries of their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. A. Moffat took the thirtieth one, which occurred last Monday, as a matter of fact little suspecting the plan that were being made for their surprise. About nine o'clock the following persons arrived with Crokinole boards, stands, etc., entered the house and completely surprising them: Messrs. J. N. and B. B. Brown, Crane, Urquhart and Shaw, and Mesdames J. N. and B. B. Brown, Cooper, Cowen, Crane, Urquhart and Shaw. Mrs. Moffat said she would have fallen down had there been room, and Mr. Moffat facetiously told the following incident. He said, when they were married a young friend of his who had been married a few days before met him and shaking hands said: "I wish you many happy returns." This added to the mirth of the company and all set out for a jolly good time. An elegant lunch, which Christie Moffat had prepared on the pretext that she was going to entertain a few Y friends, was served just before the company broke up. A beautiful rocking chair from Mr. Syverson's store was presented as a token of the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Moffat are held. Mr. Moffat stands high in the estimation of the people both as a man, as a contractor and builder and as a Christian. He is the teacher of the bible class in the Congregational Sunday school while Mrs. Moffat is teacher of the infant class and active in W. C. T. U. work. Each of them "abounds in the work of the Lord" as opportunity offers.
