

A pretty home wedding was that which took place at the residence of Mr. Edward Nierenberg, northwest of town on Tuesday evening, when he was united in marriage with Miss Jennie E. Williams. Early in the evening a large number of friends and neighbors gathered to enjoy the occasion, and a very social time was had until a few minutes after eight o'clock when the contracting parties appeared, the groom dressed in black and his bride in pure white satin. As they halted in the center of the room the Rev. Oscar D. Parinton met them and pronounced the ceremony which they were so happy to assume. A bountiful and delicious wedding supper was served, and music and dancing were enjoyed until the evening hours had worn away. The presents to the bride were numerous and beautiful.
