

Married — at the Congregational parsonage, by Rev. Edwin S. Shaw, Thursday, March 19, 1896, Mr. Thomas C. Ross, of Riverside, Steele county, N. D., and Miss Mary E. McCall, of Union City, Mich.

Mr. Ross formerly lived near Union City where he wooed and won the woman, whom, after fifteen years of separation, he has now wed. The bride accompanied by her mother arrived on Thursday's train. They were met by Mr. Ross and repaired at once to the parsonage. After the ceremony was performed, the party sat down to supper with the pastor and his wife. They left for their Riverside home the same evening. The Courier joins in congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Ross.
