

A quiet home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Retzlaff at 10 a. m., Wednesday morning, when their daughter, Miss Antoinette, was united to Mr. Alexander B. Stewart, Rev. O. D. Purinton officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony and usual congratulations the company sat down to a sumptuous dinner. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Retzlaff, is a popular young lady and much esteemed by everybody. Alex. as he is familiarly called, is the agent of the Great Western Elevator Company, a position he has held for several years at this place. He is a genial fellow and popular with all classes. The Courier joins with a host of friends in wishing the newly wedded couple much happiness and prosperity. The young folks are now settled down to house-keeping at their home on Lenham avenue.
