

---

Mrs. E. W. Blackwell, while hanging out some clothes last Monday, slipped on some ice and fell with great force to the ground, receiving some severe bruises besides getting badly shaken up. She was found lying unconscious in the yard. We are to hear that no bones were broken and that she is about all right again.

---