A Plucky Woman.

Mrs. O. C. Nelson, who lives six miles west of this city and who has the contract to carry the mail to Lee postoffice, was not to be delayed longer than absolutely necessary after the big storm from performing her duty in the capacity of mail-carrier. She walked something over seventeen miles Sunday, after the team had tired out, and carried the mail sack on her back. Mrs. Nelson has more pluck than most women, yea, than most men. Here's a case of one of North Dakota's plucky women.—
