

---

Caroline Stadig, a ten year old girl living at Arne Luckason's, met with severe injuries last Sunday. She got into a pig pen to see some little pigs when the old sow went for her, knocking her down and ripping the flesh on her legs in several places. Had not help arrived promptly the hog would probably have killed her. Dr. Bergstrom dressed the wounds and the little girl is getting along nicely.

---