

---

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Larson died very suddenly Monday morning from cramps or colic. The little child had been sick most of the winter, but nothing serious was noticed until it was taken sick and died in its mother's lap Monday morning. The funeral occurred Tuesday afternoon and the remains were interred in the cemetery.

---