

---

The body of Adolph Olson of Sanborn, who perished in the Thanksgiving storm, and for whom diligent search was made, was found Monday by George Gallipo five miles south of Sanborn. The body was in good condition, the head being completely enveloped in a thick coating of ice.

---