Mr. Michel Retzlaff, father of Julius Retzlaff, died Monday morning from a complication of disorders. He had been sick all winter. Had he lived until the latter part of May he would have been seventy-eight years old. He leaves a widow and several grown up children. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, services being held in the Baptist church, Rev. Hermann, of Jamestown, officiating. The remains were interred in the Cooperstown cemetery.
