

SUDDEN DEATH.

A Former Citizen of Cooperstown Passes Away.

Word was received at Cooperstown last week announcing the sudden death of Thore Serumgard, once a much esteemed citizen of Cooperstown. The Devils' Lake News gives the following facts:

The community was shocked Wednesday morning to learn of the death of Thore Serumgard, from typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of but four or five days.

Mr. Serumgard was born in Gulbrandsdalen, Norway, March 31st, and came to America with his parents in 1868. In 1882 he removed to Dakota, settling near Cooperstown, from which place he removed in 1894 and made his home at Devils Lake. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father, and four brothers, Ole, Siver, Anton and John, all of this city, also two sisters, who reside in Minnesota. The family have the sympathy of all in their grief.

Mr. Serumgard was an honest, hard-working man, a good neighbor, liked and respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the A. O. U. W., and the funeral services, which were held today, were attended by that organization in a body, and many other sorrowing friends.
