

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. F. J. Stone were held in the Congregational church last Friday afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. E. S. Shaw preaching the sermon, and special music being furnished by the choir. The church was crowded, and Mr. Shaw spoke very feelingly of the many good qualities of the deceased. The heart-broken husband left Saturday morning with the remains for Elkhorn, Wis., where they were interred in the cemetery at that place.
