

They say that it is better late than never, so the Courier takes this opportunity of congratulating Mr. and Mrs. John Cain over their little daughter born to them on August 27th. The little stranger is certainly a welcome addition to this household and the happy parents anticipate a great deal of comfort from the little girl. Here's hoping that she will grow and thrive and live to be a blessing to her parents.