

Wedding Bells. ✓

At West Prairie church, Mr. Louis Berg and Isabell Alfson were united in the bonds of wedlock by the Rev. Eliason. The full Lutheran marriage service being used which was very impressive. Miss Johnson, of Cooperstown presiding at the organ. The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion with roses, hyacinth and smilax. A large white fur rug in front of the alter on which the wedding party stood. The bride was handsomely and becomingly attired in white satin, with pearl trimming. Bride and groom carried large boquets of roses.

The bride was attended by Miss Clara Rorvig, Lena Aslakson and Miss Asmondson, all prettily dressed in white cashmere, with chiffon trimming, decorations being roses and carnations. The groom dressed in the conventional black. Mr. Greenland, Henry and Albert Alfson, brothers of the bride being groomsmen. Following the ceremony hearty congratulations were bestowed on the worthy pair after which all invited guests went to the home of the brides parents which is close by.

Dinner was soon served and such a dinner as only those who have been fortunate to partake of Mrs. Alfson's well prepared dinners will understand. A happy co-incidence connected with the affair, it being the 26th anniversary of the marriage of the bride's father and mother. A large number of beautiful gifts were received by the bride and groom, attest fully the es-