

Married.

A quiet wedding occurred at the home of the bride, the residence of Judge and Mrs. Hough, on Dakota Ave., Dec. 31, 1899, when Miss Edith A. Saxton was married to Mr. Daniel R. Davis, of St. Clair, Michigan, the Rev. William A. Howard officiating. Miss Saxton has been well and favorably known here since her childhood, and her hosts of friends will wish them a happy and prosperous voyage through life. Mr. Davis was among the first to volunteer at his country's call. A few weeks ago he came to Washington from Manila via San Francisco and has been visiting friends at home, North Dakota and elsewhere, on furlough and is now under orders to report in New York whence he sails on the transport Meade the 13th inst, for Manila via the Suez Canal. The happy couple left on the Omaha 8:40 p. m. train for Minneapolis, where the bride will remain for the present. The Republican-Voice wishes them a happy, prosperous long life.

The above notice was handed to us by Mrs. E. W. Blackwell and was clipped from the Republican-Voice, of New Richmond, Wis. Mr. Davis is a very popular young gentleman at Cooperstown and has a host of friends who will join with the Courier in wishing Soldier Dan and his bride much happiness and prosperity.
